

Consumer Privacy is an important concern, please keep the do not call list strong! For us it has meant a drastic reduction in unwanted calls- and numerous trips to the phone to see who is calling. Since one of the family members is disabled, this helps a lot to have the unwanted marketing calls reduced. We would not answer these calls anyway.